The Honorable Krystal Oriadha Chair,
Prince George's County Council
1301 McCormick Drive, Second Floor
Largo, Maryland 20772

Dear Chair Oriadha,

I am pleased to recommend Ms. Lori M. Matthews for service on the Prince George's County Board of Ethics. Ms. Matthews brings more than 30 years of professional experience across education, government, administration, and community engagement—experience that demonstrates sound judgment, professionalism, discretion, and a strong ethical foundation.

Ms. Matthews served for decades as an educator in Charles County and Prince George's County, where she developed curricula, managed classroom environments, and mentored students—roles requiring fairness, impartiality, and a commitment to community trust. She also has extensive administrative experience with the Department of Homeland Security, where she managed sensitive White House and Congressional documents, coordinated high-level briefings, and served as a point of contact between ICE and the Office of Legislative Affairs. This background reflects her ability to handle confidential information responsibly and navigate complex ethical considerations.

Her additional experience in corporate and community-facing roles, including her current work as CEO of Executive Décor, further demonstrates her leadership, reliability, and professionalism. Taken together, Ms. Matthews' diverse background and commitment to service make her highly well-suited for the responsibilities of the Board of Ethics.
