The Project includes a 5-story, 163-unit affordable apartment community for seniors, ages 62 and over, with 147 apartments units restricted to tenants earning 60% of the area median income (AMI) or less.

The Council's favorable consideration of this legislation is greatly appreciated. Should you require additional information, please contact Angie Rodgers, Deputy Chief Administrative Officer for Economic Development at (240) 623-4297.
