19 (a) Purpose. The purpose of this Section is to:

20 (1) promote the employment of returning citizens who have been incarcerated for or 21 convicted of a criminal offense and face obstacles in reentering the workforce; and

(2) promote the effective re-entry of citizens transitioning from incarceration or conviction back into society in a manner that fosters positive rehabilitation and reduces the likelihood of reoffending, thereby improving public safety.

(b) Definitions. In this Section, the following words have the following meanings:

(1) Public works means construction, alteration, demolition, installation, or repair of any public structures and facilities.

(2)(1) Returning citizen means a citizen of the United States who has previously been confined for any period of time in a facility or environment that is intended to restrict a person's movement and freedom, including but not limited to: a federal, state, or local correctional facility; home detention; or electronic monitoring, as a form of punishment as a result of a criminal conviction.

(c) Requirement.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Subtitle, for any new contract or procurement for construction or public works, roadway (including right-of-way) maintenance, or property maintenance contract or procurement authorized by this Subtitle or otherwise administered by any County agency or quasi-County agency, at least five percent (5%) of the work hours worked in performing such contract or procurement shall be worked by one or more returning citizens.

(2) For existing contracts or procurements, this requirement shall be imposed at the time of any renewal or extension of such contracts or procurements.

(d) Implementation. In fulfilling the requirement of Subsection (c), above, qualified individuals referred in writing by Employ Prince George's (and/or any other entity designated by the County Executive) to the entity awarded the contract or procurement shall receive first preference by the entity and its subcontractors, if any, in working the hours required to comply with the requirement.

(e) Waiver. On a procurement-by-procurement (or contract-by-contract) basis, the Director of the Office of Procurement may waive and either remove or reduce the requirement of Subsection (c), above, if the Director of the Office of Procurement determines in writing that:

(3) there is an insufficient number of qualified returning citizens available to fulfill the requirement.

(f) Enforcement. Compliance with this Section shall be a written condition of any contract or procurement subject to this Section, or the contract or procurement shall be void.

(g) Reporting. Any entity awarded a procurement or contract subject to the requirements of this Section shall report in writing in a manner and frequency determined by the Director of the Office of Procurement on the progress of compliance with the requirement of Subsection (c), above, during the performance of such contract or procurement.

(h) Regulations authorized. The Director of the Office of Procurement may promulgate regulations to govern the implementation of this Section, provided that such regulations are consistent with the provisions of this Section.
