Mr. Turner, a resident of Laurel, Maryland, has over 26 years of financial investigative and management experience at the regional and national federal level, to include the Internal Revenue Service, Criminal Investigations (IRS-CI). As a highly decorated Special Agent with a distinguished record of success in financial crime investigations, Mr. Turner brings a wealth of experience in forensic accounting, audits and risk management, and investigative operations management home to Prince George's County.

As a result, the Prince George's County Council members believe that Mr. Turner's appointment as Integrity and Compliance Officer for the Prince George's County Public Schools will enhance the effectiveness of school system programs, policies, practices, and operations. We look forward to a continuing cooperative relationship with the Board of Education, as we work in partnership for the betterment of those we serve.
