⁶If the legislation is likely to have no fiscal impact, why that is the case

The proposed Act does not have a fiscal impact because it establishes procedural timelines and reporting requirements for the Department of Public Works and Transportation to respond to requests through the existing Neighborhood Traffic Management Program (NTMP). The legislation proposes to add the program details into the Prince George's County Code; it also amends Sec.26-114.01 and Sec.26-114.02 of the County Code as it relates to speed monitoring systems.

The addition of the proposed NTMP section in the County Code defines the program, the process and relevant timelines, and the expected outcomes. The amended sections indicate the Department must consult with the Police Department to reach a final decision on whether the Department will install speed monitoring systems at the requested location, a response must be within six months of when the County Councilmember made the request, and include an estimated time for the installation, if relevant.
