This legislation repeals sections of the County Code which have been superseded by State and/or Federal law and is part of an on-going code maintenance effort being performed by the Legislative Officer. This effort is necessary due to periodic reprints of the entire code. The repealing of these sections of Subtitle 15 will not have any effect on Municipalities.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION/FISCAL IMPACT(Includes reason for proposal, as well as any unique statutory requirements)

The proposed legislation repeals certain provisions of the County Code pertaining to municipalities. The provisions collected in Subtitle 15 were first enacted by the General Assembly beginning in 1933 and 1939 and were most recently amended in 1963. Since that time, the relationship between the County and municipalities has been significantly altered by general public law enacted by the General Assembly which provided for greater independence of municipalities. Article 23A, Md. Ann. Code, provides general and specific legislative authority to all municipalities.
