BACKGROUND INFORMATION/FISCAL IMPACT

(Includes reason for proposal, as well as any unique statutory requirements)

The Marlton Gazebo, a symbol of the Marlton Community, located at the intersection of North Marlton Avenue and U.S. Route 301 is scheduled for demolition during the week of July 8, 2002 by the Department of Public Works and Transportation. The Citizens Association of Marlton ("CAM") and the Prince George's County Council request postponement of the demolition of the Gazebo to allow CAM and the Department of Public Works to explore alternatives for the reconstruction or refurbishment, funding and perpetual maintenance of the Gazebo.
