The County Council sitting as the Committee of the Whole met on June 10, 2025, to consider CB-059-2025.

Staff provided an overview stating that the Bill outlines the new Collective Bargaining Agreement between Prince George's County and the Prince George's Correctional Officers' Association, Inc., reflecting the completion of labor negotiations and the terms of the new two-year Agreement covering fiscal years 2025 and 2026. Companion legislation, CR-072-2025, includes the associated Salary Schedule D.

The Agreement includes compensation increases, a 2.75% Cost-of-Living Adjustment (COLA) for fiscal year 2025, and a 2.5% COLA for fiscal year 2026.

It also provides a regular merit increase of 3.5% based on the employees' original hire anniversary date in fiscal years 2025 and 2026. While many provisions from the previous Agreement remain in place, the associated closed settlement summary outlines several significant updates.

Sakinda Skinner, Acting County Executive Office, expressed support for CB-059-2025, and Terry Bell, Office of Law, stated that CB-059-2025 was found to be in proper legislative form.

The County Council sitting as the Committee of the Whole voted favorably 9-0 on CB-059-2025.
