This is a "housekeeping" bill designed to clear the Code of unnecessary, redundant or obsolete language. Audits and Investigations finds no negative fiscal impact in adopting this bill. CB-71 has also been found to be in proper legislative and legal form. No amendments were offered. After minimal discussion, motion was made for approval.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION/FISCAL IMPACT

(Includes reason for proposal, as well as any unique statutory requirements)

The proposed legislation repeals certain provisions of the County Code pertaining to the operation of public schools. These provisions were first enacted in 1924 and were last amended by the General Assembly in 1963. The subject matter covered by these County Code provisions is comprehensively covered by the Education Article of the Annotated Code of Maryland which was first enacted in 1978.
