Staff summarized the purpose of the resolution. CR-84-2007 expresses approval of the project submitted by CASA of Maryland, Inc., to the Maryland Department of Housing and Community development for the participation in the Department's Community Investment Tax Credit Program.

The Office of Law determined that CR-84-2007 was in proper legislative form.

The Office of Audits and Investigation indicated there will be no adverse fiscal impact on the County as a result of adopting CR-84-2007.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION/FISCAL IMPACT:

(Includes reason for proposal, as well as any unique statutory requirements)

CASA of Maryland, Inc. (“CASA”), a nonprofit organization, has applied to the Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development for approval of a project to renovate the McCormick-Goodhart Mansion for participation in the Community Investment Tax Credit Program. The McCormick-Goodhart Mansion is a Prince George’s County Historic Site located in the Langley Park area. CASA proposes to rehabilitate the site to house its Multicultural Service Center to serve the low-income immigrant community in the County. The State of Maryland requires local legislative support for participation in the Program.
