Police Accountability Board

- Not all police misconduct complaints are filed via the PAB. Complaints can also be submitted directly to the involved law enforcement agencies.
- By law, we forward any complaints we receive to the LEAs for investigation.
- The Board reviews completed investigations to identify trends, make policy recommendations, and enhance policing transparency for the public.

AHB Appointments

The Board is required to appoint at least one member of the community to serve on the county's Administrative Hearing Board (AHB). In March, the Board conducted interviews and appointed six new members to the AHB, expanding its composition from four to ten members.

PAB At Work: 2024 Q1 Highlights

The PAB had a very active first quarter. Some highlights:

- February 13, 2024 - A new Program Administrator, Ebony Rorls, was onboarded, replacing Denise Hall, who retired. A Policy Analyst and General Clerk were also added, increasing the number of PAB staff to 5.
- February 29, 2024 - the Board sent a letter to Delegate Taylor (District 23) in response to her request for support of the Anne Arundel County PAB's proposed amendments to the State of Maryland Code to improve Police Accountability
- March 7, 2024 – PAB Staff joined other Maryland PABs and LEAs for a Summit organized by the Governor's Office of Crime Prevention & Policy and the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF)
- March 27, 2024—The Board hosted a community event, and attendees learned about the complaint process, current reforms, and the future of policing in Prince George's County.
- April 5, 2024- Board Member Keenon James met with Chief Bowers with the Greenbelt PD

Chiefs Meeting

On April 5th, a member of the PAB met with the Greenbelt police Chief to discuss the agency's traffic stop data and records.

MEETINGS

- The PAB meets every 2nd and 4th Wednesday, virtual or in-person.
- Meeting notices, links, agendas, and minutes are published on the PAB webpage and in the Agenda and Minutes Center.
- The public may view open meetings.
