BACKGROUND INFORMATION/FISCAL IMPACT:

(Includes reason for proposal, as well as any unique statutory requirements)

The 110th Congress is considering proposed legislation that will provide for the treatment of the District of Columbia as a Congressional district for purposes of representation in the House of Representatives. The District of Columbia House Voting Rights Act of 2007 (H.R. 1905) passed the House of Representatives on April 19, 2007 and has been referred to the United States Senate Committee on Finance. The proposed resolution expresses the Council's support for legislation establishing voting representation in the House for the District of Columbia.
