Chair Turner welcomed the committee and turned to Ms. Hewlett who introduced each panel guest. Ms. Runsack facilitated a PowerPoint presentation which focused on census design, operational timeline, recruiting goals, overcoming obstacles, outreach and partnerships. Mr. Canistra facilitated a PowerPoint presentation which focused on County census activities completed to date, census website, hard-to-count areas, foreign language by tract, State grant application and outreach, partnerships, timeline of events. Ms. Hewlett expressed a desire to have an ambassador for each community and spoke to the partnerships that have been established. Council Members Glaros and Taveras requested a follow-up briefing after review of additional documents. Other concerns raised by the Council were: adding fear of deportation, inclusion of both small and large churches as a means of outreach as well as social media and schools.
