If the Owner has not paid the amount due under this Agreement before March 30th following the due date, the County may, at its option, declare a default by providing notice of such default to the Owner and to the Persons listed on Exhibit B attached hereto. If within ten (10) business days of such notice, any payments that are owed have not been brought current by the Owner or a Person listed on Exhibit B on the Owner's behalf, then the County may declare all taxes, which shall include the Deferred Amount, due. In order to enforce its rights under this paragraph after a failure to bring payments current, the County may, in its sole and absolute discretion, renegotiate this Agreement, foreclose or seek any other remedy available at law or in equity (including tax sale proceedings). Payments due under this paragraph shall be considered a lien against the Property just as any other delinquent real property taxes shall constitute a lien. The County's delay and or failure to provide notice within the time and manner stated herein shall not limit or otherwise be deemed a waiver of its rights and remedies available in law and equity.

10. Representations and Warranties.
