BACKGROUND INFORMATION/FISCAL IMPACT:

(Includes reason for proposal, as well as any unique statutory requirements)

The Maryland Economic Development Association, the largest organization in Maryland representing economic development professionals at the State and County levels and private sector, has initiated a statewide observance of Economic Development Week in Maryland. Governor O'Malley will be declaring the State's recognition of Economic Development Week, and all 23 Counties and Baltimore City are being asked to do the same. This observance is intended to recognize and offer support for the work of economic development professionals in attracting and growing the economy of the State and Counties.
