26	SUBTITLE 3. ANIMAL CONTROL.
27	DIVISION 4. ANIMAL CONTROL ENFORCEMENT.
28	SUBDIVISION 3. ANIMAL CONTROL REGULATIONS.
29	Sec. 3-135. Animals at large prohibited.
30	(a) It shall be unlawful for the owner or custodian of any animal (including, but not limited
31	to, any cattle, horse, mule, swine, sheep, goat, geese, ducks, chickens, dog, cat, or other animal) to permit the animal to run at large or be at large as defined in Section 3-101(7) within Prince George's County, Maryland. At large shall also include:

- (1) The confinement or securing of an animal by any person at a location other than on the premises of its owner, custodian, or authorized agent;
  - (2) Herding such animal or tying it for grazing in any street or other public place;
- or (3) The fastening or tethering of any horse or other animal on public property affixed to any standard (i.e., rail, post, fence), hydrant, shade tree, or to any box or case around such tree, or to any public ornamental tree on any street or public ground.
- (b) Any animal found at large or running at large is declared to be a nuisance and dangerous to the public health, safety, and welfare.
- (c) The owner of any animal running at large shall be held strictly liable for a violation of this statute, except as provided in paragraphs (f) and (g) of this Section, and for any damages caused by said animal.
- (d) Any person who is aware of an animal running at large within the County shall report the condition by telephone. The identity of an informant under this Section shall not be disclosed except to employees of the Animal Control program and duly authorized law enforcement officers.
- (e) Any Animal Control Officer, police officer, or other agent authorized or empowered to perform any duty under this Subtitle may pursue any animal at large or running at large and may go upon any premises for impounding the animal at large or running at large. If the animal returns to the premises of its owner, the Animal Control Officer may pursue the animal upon the unenclosed exterior premises of the owner. If the owner or custodian takes the animal within the enclosed interior portion of his premises, the Animal Control Officer or police officer shall direct the owner or custodian to surrender the animal for impoundment. No person, after having been directed by an Animal Control Officer or law enforcement officer to surrender an animal for impoundment, shall fail to surrender the animal immediately. Failure to surrender an animal for impoundment upon demand by an Animal Control Officer or law enforcement officer is a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, the violator may be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment not to exceed ninety (90) days in the County Detention Center, or both. In addition to the criminal penalty hereby imposed, the Commission may impose civil penalties pursuant to Section 3-110 and Section 3-116 herein.

- (f) Any animal is considered at large if it is outside the owner's premise and not leashed, unless it is a service animal, is in an animal exercise area, designated by Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission (M-NCPPC) or the Administrator, or in a securely fenced area on the premises of another property owner with the permission of the property owner or lessee, or is participating in an approved activity such as undergoing obedience training or engaged in the sport of hunting in authorized areas and supervised by a competent person.
- (g) For purposes of this Section, the common area of an apartment complex, homeowners' association, condominium, or cooperative is not the owner's premises.
- (h) A leash may not exceed ten (10) feet in length. A retractable leash or electronic training collar or similar device does not meet the leash requirement for the purposes of this section.
- (g) No animal running at large by accident with a person in immediate pursuit of it shall be deemed to be at large, running at large or a stray.

Sec. 3-136. - Dangerous animals.

- [(a) Any animal that without provocation:
  - (i) kills or inflicts injury on a human on private or public property;
  - (ii) kills a domesticated and/or farm animal; [or]
- (iii) has been previously found to be potentially dangerous because of injury inflicted on a human or an animal, the owner having received notice of such and the animal again aggressively bites, attacks, or endangers public safety;
- (iv) poses a physical threat to humans because of specific training or demonstrated behavior, or because the animal's bite is poisonous; or
- (v) has been declared dangerous or potentially dangerous elsewhere is defined to be a dangerous animal for the purpose of this Subtitle.]
- (a) An owner of an animal declared dangerous or potentially dangerous in another jurisdiction must remove the animal from the County within ten (10) days after receiving a citation or other notice of a violation of this Section unless waived of this requirement and has imposed conditions or restrictions for the animal to remain in the County. The Administrator may waive these prohibitions for a specific animal only upon a finding that the animal is not a threat to public health or safety. No animal shall be found to be dangerous if the threat, injury, or damage was sustained by a person who was acting in provocation. [:

- (1) Committing, at the time, a crime upon the premises occupied by the animal's owner or custodian;
- (2) Committing, at the time, a tort upon the premises occupied by the animal's owner or custodian; [or]
  - (3) Provoking, tormenting, or physically abusing the animal[.]; or
  - (4) The animal was protecting or defending a person in the immediate vicinity; or
  - (5) The animal was defending itself, its litter, or another animal.]
- (b)It shall be the duty of the Police Department to receive and document complaints concerning dangerous animals. It shall be the duty of the Administrator/Animal Control Officer to receive and investigate complaints concerning dangerous animals. Whenever an animal complained against shall be reasonably deemed by a police officer or the Administrator/Animal Control Officer to be a dangerous animal, the police officer or Administrator/Animal Control Officer shall report the fact to the Commission in the form of a written complaint and shall be authorized and empowered to impound the animal pending a hearing if he reasonably believes that the owner of the animal is not capable of restraining the animal from attacking, biting, or injuring any human being or other animal pending a hearing on whether the animal is dangerous. Notwithstanding the above, whenever an animal causes severe injury to any human being, the police officer or Animal Control Officer shall impound the animal pending a hearing by the Commission. In this Section, severe injury means any physical injury from single or multiple bite(s) resulting in broken bones, serious disfigurement, serious impairment of health, serious impairment of a bodily function, or requiring multiple sutures or cosmetic surgery.
- (c)Whenever an animal has been impounded pursuant to this Section, the owner shall be notified within forty-eight (48) hours of the impoundment of a right to a preliminary hearing. The preliminary hearing shall be scheduled within seventy-two (72) hours of a written request by the owner. This preliminary hearing may be conducted by a hearing officer designated by the Commission and shall be for the sole purpose of determining whether the owner of the animal is capable of restraining the animal from attacking, biting or injuring any human being or other animal until it can be determined at a hearing conducted by the Animal Control Commission whether the animal is dangerous.
- (d) If it is determined that the alleged dangerous animal may be returned to the custody of the owner until the scheduled full hearing, the Commission may impose such requirements of conditions as are deemed necessary to restrain the animal and the owner shall be required to pay the costs and maintenance expenses incurred during the time that the animal was impounded. Should the owner not adhere to conditions set forth by the Commission, the alleged dangerous animal shall be immediately impounded and remain in the custody of the County pending the outcome of the full hearing.

- (e)If the Commission determines that continuing impoundment is necessary, the owner shall be responsible for all costs and maintenance expenses incurred.
- (f) Any person who alleges that an animal is dangerous may file a complaint with the Animal Control Commission that states in clear language why the animal is dangerous. This complaint shall identify where the animal is located and describe the animal which is the subject of the complaint. The Administrator shall investigate the complaint and may impound the animal in accordance with this Section.
- (g) The Commission shall conduct a public hearing upon the question of whether the animal is a dangerous animal in accordance with the provisions of Section 3-110 of this Subtitle.
- (h) If the Commission, upon the evidence before it, finds that the animal complained of is in fact a dangerous animal, as defined in Subsection (a), above, and Section 3-101(32), the Commission may direct the owner or custodian of the dangerous animal to confine the animal and to abate its danger to the public in accordance with Section 3-137 herein, or require the owner or custodian of the dangerous animal to surrender the animal to the County and authorize the Administrator to destroy the animal.
- (i) The Administrator shall maintain a record of all known dangerous animals in Prince George's County.
- (j) If any animal shall be found at large or running at large by an Animal Control Officer or police officer and, in the judgment of the Animal Control Officer or police officer, such animal is dangerous, and cannot be taken up or tranquilized and impounded, such animal may be slain by the Animal Control Officer or police officer.
- (k) The Administrator or any other person must not sell, release, or place for adoption an animal that an animal control officer found is dangerous or potentially dangerous unless the Administrator finds the action is safe.
