BACKGROUND INFORMATION/FISCAL IMPACT:

Section 316 of the County Charter requires the County Council to adopt and publish rules of procedure applicable to proceedings of the Council when sitting in legislative or business sessions and, where permitted by the Regional District Act within State law, certain proceedings of the Council when sitting as the District Council. Accordingly, when deemed necessary by the legislative body, the Council adopts amendments to its Rules of Procedure as permitted by law. This Resolution will approve certain amendments to the District Council Rules of Procedure as companion legislation to a separate Council Resolution, which is under concurrent consideration by the Council, to approve amendments to the County Council Rules of Procedure.
