 30 hour security camera(s):

31 (A) on each building and has a field of view of one hundred eighty degrees (180°)

1                   with a view of each aperture designated for ingress and egress to include 2                   emergency exits; and

3                   (B) at each Common Area(s).

4                   (2) Each security camera shall have at a minimum a resolution of 1080p, and, if the 5                   security camera tracks the date and time the time shall be tracked in eastern standard 6                   time.

7                   (3) Each landlord shall retain its security camera footage for no less than thirty (30)
8                   days, and, if a Tenant, law enforcement officer, person with a bona fide interest 9                   requests security camera footage in relation to an incident on the property then 10                   landlord shall retain its security camera footage for no less than one hundred eighty 11                   (180) days from the date of request.

12                   (g) Enforcement of Maintenance of Security Equipment in Common Areas. Tenants 13                   may bring complaints of defective or malfunctioning safety measures or equipment and 14                   related violations of Section 13-153 to:

15                   (1) The landlord, the Property Manager, or the landlord's agent; and

16                   (2) The landlord shall correct the defect or make repair(s) to the defective or 17                   malfunctioning safety measures or equipment within fourteen (14) business days; 18                   and

19                   (3) If the landlord fails to correct the defect or make repair(s) to the defective or 20                   malfunctioning safety measures or equipment within fourteen (14) business days, 21                   the Tenant may bring the complaints to the Director of the Department of 22                   Permitting, Inspections, and Enforcement (DPIE); and

23                   (4) If DPIE determines that a violation has occurred, DPIE may impose a civil fine or 24                   an [oran] administrative citation not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500) for each 25                   violation; and

26                   (5) Any civil fine levied pursuant to this section shall be imposed each day the 27                   landlord is in violation of this section, and

28                   (6) [(5)] Any penalty that DPIE imposes for a violation pursuant to this subsection,
29                   shall be in addition to any other penalty authorized under Federal, State, County, 30                   municipal statute, Code, regulations, case law or ordinance governing the 31                   maintenance, construction, use, or appearance of the dwelling unit and the property

1 of which it is a part.

2 (h) Financial Assistance.

3 (1) The Director of the Office of Management and Budget may award a one (1) time 4 rebate up to $5,000 to any High Occupancy Dwelling Facility that is subject to the 5 provisions of this Subdivision for expenditures pertaining to security camera 6 requirements.

7 SECTION 2. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED that the provisions of this Act are hereby 8 declared to be severable; and, in the event that any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, 9 sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act is declared invalid or unconstitutional by a court of 10 competent jurisdiction, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect the remaining words, 11 phrases, clauses, sentences, subparagraphs, paragraphs, subsections, or sections of this Act, since 12 the same would have been enacted without the incorporation in this Act of any such invalid or 13 unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, subparagraph, subsection, or section.

14 SECTION 3. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED that this Act shall take effect on forty-five (45)
15 calendar days after it becomes law.

16 SECTION 4. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED that dwellings issued an initial use and 17 occupancy permit prior to January 1, 2004, shall have until June 1, 2024, to comply with the 18 mandates of this Act.
