23 (4) When a juvenile or minor is exercising First Amendment rights protected by the

 25 of assembly, by first delivering to the person designated by the County [Chief of Police] Police
 26 Chief to receive such information a written communication, signed by the juvenile or minor and 27 countersigned, if practicable, by a parent of the juvenile or minor. The communication shall 28 include the parent's home address and telephone number and specify when, where, and in what 29 manner the juvenile or minor will be in a public place during hours when this Division is 30 otherwise applicable to juveniles or minors.

31 (5) In case of reasonable necessity for the juvenile or minor remaining in a public

Sec. 14-104. Parental responsibility.

It shall be unlawful for a parent having legal custody of a juvenile or minor knowingly to permit, or by inefficient control to allow, the juvenile or minor to remain in any County public place under circumstances not constituting an exception to, or otherwise beyond the scope of, this Division. The term "knowingly" includes knowledge that a parent should reasonably be expected to have concerning the whereabouts of a juvenile or minor in that parent's legal custody. This requirement is intended to hold a neglectful or careless parent up to a reasonable community standard of parental responsibility through an objective test. It shall, therefore, be no defense that a parent was without knowledge of the activities or conduct or whereabouts of such juvenile or minor.

Sec. 14-105. Operator responsibility.

It shall be unlawful for any operator of a place open to the public to knowingly permit a juvenile or minor to remain at the place open to the public under circumstances not constituting an exception to, or otherwise beyond the scope of, this Division. The term "knowingly" includes knowledge that an operator should reasonably be expected to have concerning the patrons of the place open to the public. The standard for "knowingly" shall be applied through an objective test: whether a reasonable person in the operator's position should have known that the patron was a juvenile or minor in violation of this Division.

Sec. 14-106. Enforcement procedures.

(a) If a police officer reasonably believes that a juvenile or minor is in a public place in violation of this Division, the officer shall notify the juvenile or minor that he or she is in violation of this Division and shall require the juvenile or minor to provide his or her name, address and telephone number, and how to contact his or her parent.

(b) The police officer shall issue the juvenile or minor a written warning that the juvenile or minor is in violation of this Division and order the juvenile or minor to go promptly home. The Police Chief [of police] shall send the parent of the juvenile or minor written notice of the violation pursuant to Section 14-104.

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (b) of this Section, when a juvenile or minor has received one (1) previous written warning for violation of this Division or a police officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the juvenile or minor has engaged in delinquent conduct, the police officer shall take the juvenile or minor into custody and transport the juvenile or minor to the police district station. The parent shall immediately be notified to come for the juvenile or minor. The police officer shall determine whether, under constitutional safeguards, the juvenile or minor and/or the parent is in violation of this Division.

(d) When a parent, immediately called, has come to take charge of the juvenile or minor, and the appropriate information has been recorded, the juvenile or minor shall be released to the custody of such parent. If the parent cannot be located or fails to take charge of the juvenile or minor, then the juvenile or minor shall be released to the Department of Social Services or, upon the recommendation of the Department of Social Services, to another adult who will, on behalf of a parent, assume the responsibility of caring for the or minor pending the availability or arrival of a parent.

(e) In the case of a first violation of this Division by a juvenile or minor, the Police Chief [of Police] shall, by regular mail, send to a parent written notice of the violation with a warning

1 that any subsequent violation [will] may result in full enforcement of this Division, including
2 enforcement of parental responsibility and of applicable penalties.

3 (f) For the first violation of this Division by an operator of a place open to the public
4 who permits a juvenile or minor to remain on the premises, a police officer shall issue a written
5 notice of the violation with a warning that any subsequent violation [will] may result in full
6 enforcement of this Division, including enforcement of operator responsibility and of applicable
7 penalties.

8 Sec. 14-106.01. Penalties.

9 (a) If, after the warning notice pursuant to Section 14-106 of a first violation by a juvenile 10 or minor, a parent violates Section 14-104 (in connection with a second violation by the juvenile 11 or minor), this shall be treated as a first offense by the parent and shall be a civil violation
12 pursuant to Subtitle 28, Division 3. For the first offense by a parent, the fine [shall] may be 13 $50.00, $100.00 for the second offense, and $250.00 for the third and any subsequent offense.

14 (b) The parent of a juvenile or minor subject to this Section shall be liable for all costs
15 incurred by the County for providing personnel to remain in the company of a juvenile or minor
16 who has been detained as a curfew violator if the parent does not pick up the juvenile or minor
17 within one hour after receiving notice from the County that the County is detaining the juvenile 18 or minor for a curfew violation. The amount to be paid by the parent shall be based on the hourly
19 wage of the County employee who is assigned to remain with the juvenile or minor plus the cost
20 of benefits for that employee.

21 (c) If, after the warning notice pursuant to Section 14-106 of a violation of this Division,
22 an operator of a place open to the public violates Section 14-105 a second time, this shall be
23 treated as a first offense by the operator and shall be a civil violation pursuant to Subtitle 28,
24 Division 3. For the first offense by an operator, the fine [shall] may be $100.00, $250.00 for the 25 second offense, and $500.00 for the third and any subsequent offense.

2       SECTION 2. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED that the provisions of this Act are hereby
3 declared to be severable; and, in the event that any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph,
4 sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this Act is declared invalid or unconstitutional by a court of 5 competent jurisdiction, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect the remaining
6 words, phrases, clauses, sentences, subparagraphs, paragraphs, subsections, or sections of this
7 Act, since the same would have been enacted without the incorporation in this Act of any such
8 invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, subparagraph, subsection,
9 or section.

10       SECTION 3. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED that the provisions of this Act shall not be 11 construed to impair any lawful contract or obligation in existence prior to its effective date.

12       SECTION 4. BE IT FURTHER ENACTED that this Act shall take effect forty-five (45)
