Office of Human Rights - Fiscal Year 2022 Budget Review Summary

*Note: FY 2020-FY 2021 amounts provided for the Human Relations Commission, which was transferred from the Office of Community Relations.

FY 2022 Proposed Budget – Key Highlights

- The FY 2022 Proposed Budget for the Office of Human Rights is approximately $2.2 million, a decrease of $201,800, or 8.3%, compared to the FY 2021 Approved Budget. The decrease is primarily due a decrease in operating expenses based on anticipated costs.
- Increase Compensation Cost: Compensation is proposed at $883,100, or a decrease of $12,300 below the FY 2021 approved level, to align with actual cost.
- Vacancies (As of March 2021): The Office reported two (2) General Fund vacant full-time positions (Investigator 2G and Community Developer 1G). These positions will not be funded in FY 2022.
- The Office reports that the FY 2022 Proposed Contract amount of $650,000 will be utilized for Immigration Defense Services ($500,000), Direct Services/Support to Human Trafficking Victims ($125,000), and Counsel for Commissioners ($25,000).
- In FY 2021, the Office reports it has collaborated with the Department of Family Services (DFS) Domestic Violence and Human Trafficking Division to successfully launch and produce a campaign to raise awareness on labor trafficking throughout the month of January.
- The FY 2022 Proposed Grant Budget for the Office is $60,000. The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) provides financial assistance through a worksharing agreement. These funds are provided as a result of the investigations conducted by the Commission with regard to allegations of discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion etc.
- The Office's top priorities in FY 2022 include:
  - Continuing to reduce civil rights violations in the areas of housing, employment, public accommodation, law enforcement, commercial real estate by conducting thorough investigations of discrimination complaints.
  - Continuing to lead a coordinated response to human trafficking through the Prince George's County Human Trafficking Task Force (PGCHTTF) in the collaborative fight against human trafficking.

• Implementing the Language Access for Public Services Act, which provides for equal access to County services for residents who are not English proficient.

Budget Overview

In FY 2021, CB-11-2021 and CB-12-2021 were enacted, separating the Human Relations Commission from the Office of Community Relations and establishing a new Office of Human Rights. The FY 2022 Proposed Budget for the Office of Human Rights is $2,215,700. This represents a decrease of $201,800, or 8.3%, below the FY 2021 approved level*. The decrease is largely due to a decrease in General Fund operating expenses based on anticipated costs.

The FY 2022 Proposed Grant Budget for the Office of Human Rights is $60,000, the same level as the FY 2021 Approved Budget*.

Workload and Program Impact

- The Office reports that its employees transitioned seamlessly to teleworking. With the assistance of various virtual platforms, it has continued the mission of addressing allegations of discrimination, human trafficking, universal immigrant's rights etc.
- The Office reports it has experienced an increase in intake interviews, investigations, and participation in public outreach opportunities due to the pandemic. The use of virtual platforms will continue to be utilized across the five (5) pillars of the Office, which consists of:
  - 1. Investigations of discrimination complaints where you live or play within the County;
  - 2. Addressing human trafficking in the County utilizing the Prince George's County Human Trafficking Task Force (PGCHTTF);
  - 3. Overseeing the Capital Area Immigrants' Rights (CAIR) coalition's legislatively mandated programs;
  - 4. Designing, implementing, and managing the County's legislatively mandated Language Access for Public Services Act program; and
  - 5. Engaging the public through public outreach to build community and to reduce incidents of hate, bias, and violence. Public hearings have resumed utilizing the Zoom platform and technical enhancements.

Calvin S. Hawkins, II, Chair Committee of the Whole (COW) Page 5

• The Office reports that the Capital Area Immigrants' Rights coalition program has maintained its efficacy in serving residents of Prince George's County.

Highlights

- The Office's top accomplishments in FY 2021 included:
  - Educating the public on human trafficking. The Office reports it has conducted more than forty (40) separate education/training engagements in partnership with various stakeholders.
  - Collaborating with the Department of Family Service's (DFS) Domestic Violence and Human Trafficking Division to successfully launch and produce a campaign to raise awareness on labor trafficking throughout the month of January.
  - <sup>D</sup> Partnering with DFS to co-host a community training in Spanish, in partnership with the Latin American Youth Center and CASA.
  - Participating in more than sixty-five (65) engagements to build the community thereby reducing incidents of hate, bias, and violence. Engagements include partnerships with the Prince George's County Memorial Library System, Joe's Movement Emporium, and the Prince George's County Community College.
- The Office's top priorities for FY 2022 includes:
  - Continuing to reduce civil rights violations in the areas of housing, employment, public accommodation, law enforcement, commercial real estate by conducting thorough investigations of discrimination complaints.
  - Continuing to lead a coordinated response to human trafficking through the Prince George's County Human Trafficking Task Force (PGCHTTF) in the collaborative fight against human trafficking.
  - Implementing the Language Access for Public Services Act, which provides for equal access to County services for residents who are not English proficient.

Budget Comparison - Grant Fund

 FY 2022 Proposed Budget are proposed at $60,000, same level as the FY 2021 Approved Budget. The Office reports that the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) provides reimbursement through a work-sharing agreement. These funds are provided as a result of investigations conducted by the Office of Human Rights with regards to allegations of discrimination. EEOC reimburses the Office on fixed amount per case.
