Draft 1

VENTURE PHILANTHROPY PARTNERS

Carol Thompson Cole, President & CEO

Michelle Gilliard, Partner

Accompanied by:

Monisha Som, Communications Director

Isaac Castillo, Director of Outcomes, Assessment and Learning.

Chairman Davis welcomed the representatives of the Venture Philanthropy Partners who were introduced by Mr. Howard Stone. Mr. Stone also acknowledge Artis Hampshire-Cowen who has continued to work behind the scenes in an effort to improve the lives of children and youth in low income families.

Ms. Carol Thompson Cole led the briefing by stating they are not new to Prince George's County; they have been in partnership with the County since 2012. She indicated that the need is staggering; vulnerable young people in the region need help to be ready for kindergarten; succeed in elementary, middle, high school and college; sustain healthy behaviors and to obtain skills and credentials to get a job and thrive as adults. VPP offers a unique approach that works to help young people succeed. VPP's mission is to improve the lives of children and youth of low-income families in the region.

Ms. Michelle Guillard spoke regarding the newest initiative "Ready for Work - Champions for Career and College Ready Graduates" in Prince George's County. VPP is working in partnership with Prince George's County Administration, the public school system, local business leaders, philanthropy and a number of nonprofit organizations to implement the program at High Point, Suitland and Oxon Hill High Schools.

Each Council Member had an opportunity to either pose questions or make encouraging remarks about the work accomplished by the Venture Philanthropy Partners.

Chairman Davis thanked the group for the worked conducted and the partnerships developed. Mr. Davis also acknowledge Gary A. Sabel, Grant Coordinator for the Council, for his contributions to the grant program.

This Briefing was held.
